Maryknoll Fathers' School
Football Team Training 2026-2027

15th September 2026

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Your child, who is a member of our school's Football Team, has been chosen to participate in the school team training. School team members are obligated to the team(s) they have enrolled in and must participate actively in the regular training as well as the competition(s).

The schedule of the training is as follows:

Remarks:	- Should there be suspension of classes announced by the EDB, classes will be cancelled with no extra classes given thereafter. - Since all the instructors are arranged prior to the courses, the signed cheques and reply slips signed by parents or guardians would mean it is understood and agreed that paid funds are not refundable under all circumstances. - Students should wear the appropriate school sports PE uniform when reporting. - Enhancement and Consolidation Classes scheduled on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays have higher priority on those days. - Team training and Co-curriculum Activities (CCA) scheduled on Tuesdays and Thursdays have priority on those days. - Other activities may also occur on training days. If a clash arises, students should consult the relevant teachers to decide what best supports their overall development. - If there are not enough applicants, the corresponding course will be cancelled or merged.
